

First Base® Bump Cap

Setting a trend in style and head protection

Bullard has combined the style appeal of a standard cap with the safety of an inner liner to create a bump cap that protects against minor bumps and scrapes.

The First Base Bump Cap is appropriate for use in a variety of environments including:

- Automotive Service Center
- Transportation
- Distribution Centers
- Golf Course Maintenance
- Aviation
- Security
- Food/Beverage Processing
- Maintenance
- Where bump and scrape head protection is useful

FB2000 is a ventilated cap with six sewn eyelets, LDPE liner, and a foam pad.

NOTE:

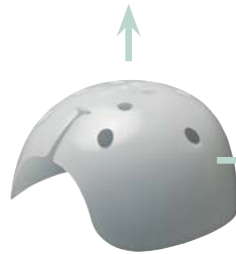

This bump cap is not a safety helmet and not intended for use where ANSI approved head protection is required. It is not intended for use as a baseball safety helmet or other sporting event equipment.
